PEARL NOTEBOOK

Building A Pearl Wardrobe

Pearl jewelry is the most feminine of all jewelry. The pearl's lustrous sheen and color tones emulate delicate skin textures. Always in fashion, pearls add elegance and style to any outfit, from a little black dress or wedding gown, to cutoffs or your favorite pair of blue jeans.

Today's fashionable pearl jewelry designs include the classic and timeless round white Akoya, the large, rare South Sea, a rainbow of pastel-colored freshwater pearls, and the richly hued Tahitian pearl in fascinating dark shades.

To build a pearl wardrobe, begin with an essential necklace of matched white pearls, add a pair of pearl studs for every day or clusters and drops for a dressier look. Create extraordinary to ordinary by pinning a classic or freeform pearl brooch on a suit lapel or sweater. If you regularly wear gold chains, adding a pearl pendant will give you an exciting new look. Next, highlight your hands with a classic pearl solitaire or an elegant cluster ring. And of course, no jewelry wardrobe would be complete without a stylish pearl bracelet.

With so many shapes, sizes, colors, and varieties available, pearls add tremendous excitement to all types of high-fashion jewelry.
