Hoops Are Hopping

This season's go-to fashion accessory has been around and around and yet it is back again. Similar to a favorite pair of blue jeans, you can never go wrong with a fabulous pair of gold or sterling silver hoop earrings. Whether embellished with gemstones, charms, or beads, hoops will work with almost any outfit from school to office or a night out on the town.

Long known for setting trends, fashion-forward actress Angelina Jolie was recently spotted wearing a slim and streamlined pair of yellow gold hoops. One does not need to resemble Mrs. Jolie Pitt to wear hoop earrings, as an extraordinarily simple pair of hoops can create an exceptionally striking look for anyone.

Suggestions for wearing hoops confidently:

Size: Don't go larger than the palm of your hand.

Style: The hoop will work for you whether embellished, smooth or textured.

Color: Whether it's sterling silver, yellow gold, white gold or this season's popular pink gold, all work well with any outfit.

Daylight Saving Time is the perfect time to check all watch and smoke alarm batteries. On March 8th, the clocks will "spring forward" one hour closer to daylight. Time changes often disrupt schedules, travel arrangements, and sleep patterns. Be sure to move all watches one hour forward and make sure the batteries are still good. Aquamarine. The name is derived from the Latin words aqua, meaning "water," and marina, meaning "sea." Aquamarine is as clear and sparkling as sea water and was once considered a talisman for sailors.

Bloodstone. Ancient bloodstone is an opaque dark green gem prized for men's rings since the middle ages. It is named for the bright red flashes that dot its surface.
